Dear Mr. Barrera:

I am delighted to appoint you to the District of Columbia Health Information Exchange Policy Board. The government depends on citizens like you who are willing to devote time and energy to important public service. In addition, District residents benefit greatly from the talent, experience, and dedication that a diverse group of people bring to their work on boards and commissions.

This honor confers upon you an obligation to always be mindful of the guiding themes of your duties—service, responsibility, and integrity. I am confident that you bring the necessary commitment and leadership and will do an outstanding job.

My warmest congratulations!

Sincerely,
