IV. Services by OHCF

- A. OHCF establishes policies and procedures for Medicaid in the District of Columbia so that they may secure D.C. identification cards enabling them to obtain medical services from providers who participate in the D.C. Medicaid Program. The Provider then bills D.C. Medicaid for Services rendered.
- B. OHCF meets the cost of essential medical care and services for recipients of financial aid to the blind, disabled, children's program and the aged.
- C. Supplements Medicare-Medicaid recipients, which includes payment of the monthly premium for part B coverage and supplements.
- D. Finances rehabilitation and medical services to recipients with potential for employment.
- E. Finances comprehensive medical care and services for children in public assistance families and for children in foster care.
- F. Finances home health services, medical equipment, oxygen therapy and medical supplies for home care.
- G. The following outpatient services are financed:

Physician visits, prescription drugs, diagnostic laboratory and x-ray, clinic services, transportation to medical resources, outpatient hospital services, family planning services and dental services for individuals.

V. Reciprocal Referrals

AHCA will utilize Medicaid providers for rendering diagnosis and treatment services. Follow-up problems will be referred to OHCF who will assign said problems to the Income Maintenance Administration (determines eligibility for Medical Assistance) or the Social Rehabilitation Administration (coordination of social and medical services for eligible patients) for an ultimate resolution. (EPSDT eligibles included.)

VI. Coordination

- A. OHCF and AHCA will coordinate plans for health services to assure maximum use and availability to recipients.
- B. The Chief of the Office of Health Care Financing and the Administrator of the Ambulatory Health Care Administration are to implement and evaluate provisions within this Agreement.

VII. Arrangements for Payments or Reimbursement

AHCA will bill D.C. Medicaid for services rendered to Medicaid eligible patients.

VIII. Arrangements for Exchange of Reports of Services Provided to Recipients of Medical Assistance Under Title XIX

Both agencies agree to exchange case information, medical reports, as well as pertinent statistical reports when warranted.

IX. Periodic Review and Joint Planning for Changes in the Agreement

This Agreement shall be reviewed on an annual basis at the end of each fiscal year.

X. Continuous Liaison between the Parties and Joint Evaluation of Policies that Effect the Cooperative Work of the Parties

A representative of the AHCA will be appointed to the Medical Care Advisory Committee of Medicaid and a representative of OHCF will participate in the Health Advisory Committee to be formed at some future date.

XI. Plans for Evaluation of Policies that Affect the Cooperative Work of the Parties

The program evaluation staff of AHCA and the program evaluation staff from OHCF will work to study the characteristics of clients served jointly, services, costs and staffing.
